PETER ISLAND British Virgin Islands

There's a no-fly zone over Peter Island, which means you can enjoy its five stunning sandy bays, discreetly scattered through 1,800 pristine acres of the British Virgin Islands, in perfect solitude. Its ultra-A-list villas were given a £750,000 facelift in March, and they're currently a (relative) bargain. ITC Classics (01244 355527, itcclassics.co.uk) has a week at the three-bedroom Hawk's Nest from £2,499pp, full-board, based on six sharing, for stays until December 19. That's a saving of £1,165pp.
