

*The Sani Resort,
Halkidiki, Greece*

The Sani Resort is a little piece of paradise. Situated on the beautiful Halkidiki peninsula in Greece, an area of unspoiled coastline (above and right) within easy reach of Thessaloniki, Greece's second city (45-minute taxi journey).

The Sani Asterias Suites are part of the resort, along with a contemporary beach hotel, a hotel aimed specifically at families (the Sani Beach Club), and the Porto Sani Village, which has a relaxed vibe that suits couples. If you want to be independent, we recommend booking a suite at the Asterias. Chic, spacious and oozing grown-up cool, you can choose from a breathtaking beach or perfect pool and harbour views. Each comes complete with its own garden and sumptuous outdoor dining space. The bathrooms are huge, the lounge space stylish and having your own private patio means you can say goodbye to tan lines if you want to.

Without doubt, one of the highlights at Sani is the fabulous spa – a luxurious getaway where you can totally immerse yourself in the pursuit of well-being. Treat yourself to a sensuous Anne Semonin body treatment featuring an exotic blend of aromatic essential oils personally selected by the therapist to meet the individual needs of your skin. And after all that pampering, indulge in the top-notch food in the resort's restaurants. This purpose-built paradise is gloriously secluded and if you're looking for a relaxing spa break, it ticks literally every box.
